Dirt Bikes: Ernie Mendehall said he reviewed the dirt bike issue and determined that it did not reach the level of nuisance that would violate zoning. He said that anyone who disagreed with his ruling could file an appeal with the Zoning Board of Appeals. Dan Rossi said there were no violations of town bylaws. He noted that since the organization of these rides there have been fewer complaints about illegal riding in the State Forest and on other town ways. Wayne Greenwell challenged Ernie's ruling. Nicholas Puner said this went to a larger issue of noise, which he had raised last year. Richard suggested Mr. Puner bring his concerns to the Planning Board for review.
