Two red fire extinguishers standing on the floor.

A white door with a window, located in the background.

A large grey trash bin with a white lid, located on the right side of the room.

A blue and yellow step ladder leaning against the wall on the right side.
