

- What is structural racism?
- Why is white supremacy still so persistent in America?
- How can we effectively challenge it?

To explore these questions, we must “see” whiteness itself—what it is, where it came from, and why it is still so powerful.

Get started with Seeing White on MV

Built around Scene on Radio's Seeing White podcast series, Seeing White on MV is designed for Island groups and organizations that want to foster meaningful discussion and contribute to a more just and equitable MV in every sector of our community, from shelter to shell fishing.

Daily emails and discussion prompts guide participants through Seeing White's 14 episodes, drawing on Island history and current events to bring the national story home to Martha's Vineyard and our own lives.

Contact us to talk about how to bring this free interactive program to your group or organization.

Email us at: seeingwhiteonmv@gmail.com

Seeing White on MV is offered by the Racial Justice/Human Dignity Committee of We Stand Together/Estamos Todos Juntos. This program is not produced by or affiliated with Scene on Radio.